

BLOCK 3 ADULT ED CLASSES CONTINUE TODAY (Sundays at 10am, 1/12-2/9):

ANXIOUS PEOPLE IN AN ANXIOUS WORLD: PURSUING A GOD OF REST

We live in a time of human history where we are generally safer and more comfortable than we've ever been, while simultaneously being more anxious than ever. Something doesn't add up! The Lord tells us, "Do not fear," more than He commands us to do anything else in His Word. What does that really mean? Are we breaking this command more than any other generation of people, or is there more to it than that? The goal of this class is to create a space for all of us to wrestle with this topic and begin a lifelong conversation about it. We will look at what the Lord, our culture, and our own bodies tell us about fear and anxiety. This class is a unique opportunity for adults and students to consider together a topic that is powerfully affecting both and begin to move toward it with a posture of hope instead of fear.

A PLACE TO CALL HOME: IMMIGRANTS, REFUGEES, AND THE KINGDOM OF GOD

The nations are now at our door. Unprecedented migration and refugee crises offer challenge and opportunity for the church in our time. How should we respond?

Taught by Joe Magri and Marty Johnson, room 203

EAGLES WINGS

Focused on adults with special learning needs, this class offers engaging Bible activities, discussion, and songs.

Led by Joanna Jennings, rm 204

CHINESE SUNDAY SCHOOL

We welcome all Mandarin speakers to come and take part in this class to discuss the sermon and enjoy fellowship with the Chinese-speaking community at Trinity.

Led by Chengsan Sun, rm 251

NEW MEMBER CLASS: INTRO TO TRINITY BEGINS JANUARY 26

Our Intro class gives you an overview of what we're about at Trinity—what we believe and why and how we do the things we do. If you're new to Trinity, you'll find this class very helpful. If you want to join the church as a member, the class is required. Class begins Jan 26. Please pre-register at tinyurl.com/register-intro

Our Work, Our Faith, and the Mission of God

Using Our Callings to Bring Goodness

Using Our Callings to Bring Truth

Using Our Callings to Bring Justice

Using Our Callings to Bring Beauty

Using Our Callings to Bring Sustainability

Using Our Callings to Bring Prosperity

Friends,

Welcome! We are glad that you are here, and we trust that you will find a place at Trinity. As the new year and new decade begin, you may be making (or at least considering) resolutions to improve your lives. At the center of our most important resolutions is a search for purpose. We at Trinity wish to seek God's purpose in our shared life together.

In our fall series, we explored how God has written us into a cosmic drama, in which He seeks "to bring unity to all things in heaven and on earth under Christ" (Ephesians 1:10). And God truly means all things—every inch of the cosmos and every second of existence.

What does this mean for our work, for what we do during our days at home or the office, in the lab or in the library? During the season of Epiphany, we are exploring the mission of God in the world. Our sermon series seeks God's wisdom to pursue our occupation as a vocation and our vocation as a mission. God delights in truth, goodness, beauty, justice, and restoration. We have the high calling as Christians to participate in what God delights in and intends to accomplish as King. Each person has a vital role. Throughout this series we will also interview congregants from various occupations, asking them to share ways in which their work reflects God's own work in the world. Together we will consider Our Work, Our Faith, and the Mission of God.

If you are new or visiting with us this morning, we want to welcome you to worship and let you know that we value your presence. We also want to invite you into the life of our church. We offer ministries for both children and students (grades 6-12) to get to know one another and our leaders more deeply, and grow in their knowledge and love of Jesus. Adult education classes take place at 10:00am, where men and women can explore various aspects of Christianity in a context of thoughtful teaching, discussion, and dialogue. We offer opportunities for community and care throughout the week through participation in our small groups. And there are further opportunities for connection and service through both periodic events and various ways to practically serve and love our neighbors and communities.

To find out more about these and other ministries, please visit the Welcome Center in our courtyard room (located to the left of the sanctuary as you face the windows) where we can meet you and help you get connected.

May you feel the Lord's great love for you this morning,
Trinity Leadership

GRIEFSHARE

If you have lost a loved one, we would love to come alongside you in your grief. GriefShare, led by Bob and Lauren Byrne, will begin Sunday, Jan 26, 10am and continue for 14 weeks. Contact Tim Jones, tim.jones@trinitycville.org, if you're interested in participating, please email accessibility@trinitycville.org.

MISSIONS EVENT: JESUS IN ATHENS MOVIE NIGHT

Trinity Local Mission invites you to join us to watch the movie Jesus in Athens, a thought-provoking documentary-style film showing how the local church transformed lives and how the local church in Athens was itself transformed when it encountered and then responded to the refugee crises in Europe. 6:30–8:30pm Wednesday, Jan 29, rm 201. No meal provided/popcorn only. Sorry, there is no childcare for this event. RSVP to Marty Johnson at marty.johnson@trinitycville.org.

VOLUNTEER WITH WORKLIFE

Please consider how you or your small group can support our jobs ministry this February-April. This is Trinity's primary mercy ministry program this year and an increasingly important part of our refugee ministry. We've shortened the commitment to 8 weeks and changed to Monday evenings as we are partnering with an amazing community resource—Network2Work. We will need ~16 Allies to walk alongside our students as mutual learners. We will also need meals and may need childcare. Please visit trinitycville.org/Work-Life for more information!

ACCESSIBILITY MINISTRY

It is our goal to make all our programs at Trinity accessible to all in our community. In worship, we invite you to join us at the 8:30am service where there is American Sign Language interpretation. We provide a hearing loop as well as large-print orders of worship for all our services. Our Eagles Wings class is accessible to adults with all levels of cognitive ability. If your child needs accommodations such as one-on-one assistance or modified curriculum to participate in Sunday school or Student Ministry, please email accessibility@trinitycville.org.

 Order of Worship We invite you to join our community of worship through this week's liturgy.

[Pastor Joe Magri and Patrick Bagaza are leading worship today. Pastor Walter Kim is preaching the sermon.]

Prelude

Establish the Work of Our Hands (Psalm 90)

O Lord, es - ta - blish the work of our hands,

*If You don't build it, we labor in vain,
without Your Spirit, we stand with no strength.
I know my life is passing away,
but the works of Your hands
are what will remain.
Let the favor of the Lord rest upon us...
(all sing refrain)*

*Teach us to number the length of our days,
Pour out Your power, we'll pour out Your praise.
Teach us to run, to finish the race,
for only what's done in love will remain.
Let the favor of the Lord rest upon us...
(all sing refrain)*

Songs of Response

*You Came to Us, Dear Jesus
He Has Shown Thee (Micah 6:8)
All Who Are Thirsty
The Day of the Lord*

Benediction

Song Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost,
as it was in the beginning,
is now and ever shall be,
world without end! Amen! Amen!

Peace

Leader: The peace of the Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Go out, greeting one another in that peace!

Postlude

A - men, a - men, a men.

 Communion God invites us to His table.

Invitation to the Lord's Table

[Communion is the family meal of Christians. The Lord Jesus invites all those who are His committed followers to commune with Him at His table: those who are baptized members of a congregation that proclaims the gospel, who are at peace with God and their neighbor, and who seek strength to live more faithfully for Christ. If you are not a follower of Jesus, or if you are not prepared to share in this meal, please spend this time in silent prayer. Grape juice is available for those who request it at the time they are served. Gluten-free wafers are available from the servers.]

Communion

Leader: Is the Father with us?

People: He is.

Leader: Is Christ among us?

People: He is.

Leader: Is the Spirit here?

People: He is.

Leader: This is our God:

People: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Leader: We are His people;

People: We are redeemed by His grace.

Leader: Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

People: Christ has died! Christ is risen! Christ will come again!

Leader: Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us. Hallelujah!

People: Hallelujah!

 Adoration We adore God for who He is and what He has done.

Call to Worship from Psalm 33:4-8, Psalm 101:1, and Amos 5:24

Leader: Praise the Lord for He loves righteousness and justice.
The earth is full of His unfailing love;
let all the earth fear the Lord!

People: Let justice roll down like a river!
Let righteousness flow like a never-failing stream!

Leader: The Word of the Lord is right and true.
All the works of the Lord are faithfulness.
The Lord thwarts the plans of the nations;
He foils the plans of many peoples.

People: Let justice roll down like a river!
Let righteousness flow like a never-failing stream!

Leader: Sing praises to the Lord;
sing of His love and His justice!

People: Let justice roll down like a river!
Let righteousness flow like a never-failing stream!

Prayer of Adoration

Children's Blessing

[Children ages 5-6 may be excused to gather at this time to attend a Children's Worship program during the sermon. The children will return to the sanctuary before communion. First-time visitors are welcome to escort their children to the Children's Worship room and observe the program. If you are interested in volunteering, please email Shannon Hall (shannon.hall@trinitycville.org).]

Song of Illumination Almighty God, We Long to See You

Al - migh - ty God, we long to see You. O - pen our hearts and make them pure. Spi - rit, we wash our hands in mer - cy;
come teach our souls to love Your truth.

Scripture Reading Amos 5:18-24

¹⁸Woe to you who long for the day of the LORD!

Why do you long for the day of the LORD?
That day will be darkness, not light.

¹⁹It will be as though a man fled from a lion
only to meet a bear,
as though he entered his house
and rested his hand on the wall
only to have a snake bite him.

²⁰Will not the day of the LORD be darkness, not light—pitch-dark, without a ray of brightness?

²¹"I hate, I despise your religious festivals;
your assemblies are a stench to Me.

²²Even though You bring Me burnt offerings and grain offerings,
I will not accept them.

Though you bring choice fellowship offerings,
I will have no regard for them.

²³Away with the noise of your songs!
I will not listen to the music of your harps.

²⁴But let justice roll on like a river,

¹⁰— righteousness like a never-failing stream!

Prayer of Confession

Leader: Let us pray.

Lord, we come confessing. Though there is no shadow or turning with You, our faith falters and stumbles.

People: We have put our trust in the things of this world that cannot save us.

Leader: We confess that we have exchanged Your glory for our own glory.

People: We have put our labors into the things that cannot give us rest.

Leader: We confess that we have ignored and forgotten Your love for us.

People: We have put our hope in lesser loves that cannot heal us.

Leader: We confess that we have forsaken the Fountain of living waters. And instead, we have hewed out cisterns for ourselves.

People: We have made broken cisterns that can hold no water.

Leader: Let us now silently confess our doubts, our anxieties, and our failure to rest in God's love... (silent confession)

Leader: What can wash away our sins?

People: Nothing but the blood of Jesus.

Leader: We are brothers and sisters through His blood.

People: We have died together, we will rise together, we will live together.

Leader: Do you renounce the sinful desires that would separate you from God and from His people?

People: We do.

Leader: Do you renounce the evil powers of this world that corrupt and destroy His good creation?

People: We do.

Leader: Do you renounce Satan and all the spiritual forces of wickedness that rebel against God?

People: We do.

(please rise in body or in spirit)

Leader: "I declare to you, brothers and sisters, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable. Listen, I tell you a mystery: We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed—in a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. Then the saying that is written will come true: "Death has been swallowed up in victory."

"Where, O death, is your victory?
Where, O death, is your sting?"

The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain."

People: Thanks be to God.

(sung)
For I am with you. I am with you.
I am with you. I am with you.
For I have called you,
called you by name.
Your labor is not in vain.

 Thanksgiving We express gratitude to God for what He has done for us.

Offering

Day by Day
Lowana Wallace and Isaac Wardell, 2017

Server, you remind us of our Savior's bowl and towel.
Teacher, you are raising up a child to be kind.
Lawyer, give us hope that justice one day will surround us.
May God's kingdom come, on earth His will be done.

Farmer, you are working for a table full of bounty.
Painter, with each color, you are teaching us to see.
Nurse, yours are the healing hands that touch the poor and broken.
May God's kingdom come, on earth His will be done.

Lord, be close to us. Lord, have mercy on us.
Lord, please put Your hand on us day by day.

Carpenter, you frame a house for those who need protection.
Laborer, you lift a heavy burden for the weak.
Leaders, build a city that all children may rejoice in.
May God's kingdom come, on earth His will be done.

(all sing)
Lord, be close to us. Lord, have mercy on us.
Lord, please put Your hand on us day by day.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Song Doxology
praise God from whom all blessings flow;
praise Him all creatures here below;
praise Him above ye heav'nly host;
praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.
